NEW LAW MIGHT AFFECT ELECTION

Some Question Raised on Legality of Vote Today Because of Bill Being Signed Yesterday

ITS TERMS NOT KNOWN HERE

County Officials Do Not Believe New
Measure Will Have Any Effect—
Reduces Election Boards

An interesting question developed today in connection with the special election to determine whether or not a county general hospital should be erected on the old fair grounds east of the city.

There was some doubt about the legality of the election because of the fact that the new county hospital bill passed by the legislature, became a law yesterday afternoon when it was signed by Governor James P. Goodrich.

The belief was expressed that the election might be declared illegal if the terms of the new act covering a special election to vote on the hospital question, do not conform with the old law under which the election was held today. However, it was pointed out by attorneys, if the changes made in the new law are only slight and immaterial, there is a chance that the legality of today's election would not be questioned.

No one here, so far as is known, is acquainted with the terms of the bill as finally passed. John A. Tittsworth, county attorney, was in the house of representatives the day it passed; it was reported at the auditor's office this afternoon. Mr. Tittsworth went to Indianapolis this afternoon and could not be consulted on the matter. It was stated at the auditor's office that a rider was attached to the bill in the senate, but it is not known what the rider provided or whether or not it is included in the bill as finally passed.

Those who have been in close touch with the preparations for the election were not inclined to take much stock in the suggestion that the election might be illegal. It is the understanding of county officials at the auditor's office that the bill which became a law yesterday is merely an amendment to the present law providing that the election officials at a special hospital election shall consist of only an inspector and clerk. It is stated that the bill was introduced for the purpose of cutting down the expenses of such an election because the original law provides for a full election board in each precinct, such as is used at a general election.

Representative W. R. Jinnett of this county telephoned County Auditor McMillin yesterday afternoon that the bill had been signed by the governor and an effort was made to notify every election inspector in the county that the election board should consist of only one inspector and one clerk. If any precincts had full boards, it was doubtful whether the commissioners could allow the claims for pay legally.

"STILL" HUNT FOR GYPSIES

Local Authorities Search for Band
Committing Petty Thefts.

County and city officials were preparing to leave this afternoon on a "still" hunt for a band of gypsies which is said to have been committing petty thefts in various parts of the county. The authorities were in search of the gypsies yesterday, but did not get in sight of them, although it was learned that they were in camp east of Rushville. Chief of Police Seward, Prosecutor Stevens and some of the county officials were preparing to renew the search this afternoon in the vicinity of where the band was reported to be located.

ON SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Paul Spacey, in Jail Here, Said to be Wanted in Connersville.

Paul Spacey, who is in jail here on a charge of issuing a check without funds in the bank, is under suspended sentence to the state reformatory for the same offense, according to local authorities. It is stated that he was sentenced in the Fayette circuit court at Connersville for passing bogus paper but is not known whether the Fayette county authorities will take charge of him. Spacey, who is said to have been making his home at Glenwood, passed a check at T. E. McAllister's pool room for $15 and had no money in the bank. An affidavit was filed against him in Squire J. P. Stech's court several days. Spacey is unable to give bond.

HUN LANGUAGE IS ELIMINATED

House Passes McCray Bill This Afternoon, 97 to 0 Under Suspension of Rules

RESTORES RAIL COMMISSION

Report Recommending Abolishing of
Public Service Commission
Adopted in House

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 25.—The German language was eliminated from the Indiana grade schools when the house this afternoon, by a vote of 97 to 0, passed the McCray bill under suspension of the rules. The bill prevents teaching of the German language in all grade schools of Indiana and provides that English shall be used in all instructions. German has been used in private and parochial schools of the state.

The lower house of the legislature today went on record in favor of abolishing the public service commission when it adopted a minority committee report on the Laughlin bill, which would restore the old railroad commission.

The action came as a big surprise when the committee reported out the bill, the majority favoring indefinite postponement. It was expected that the house would adopt it after some discussion in which the work of the committee was attacked, but the minority report recommending that the measure be passed, was adopted.

The majority report recommending passage of the McKinley bill, regulating the hours which women may work, which amends the bill so that it would limit the hours to nine a day instead of eight, was adopted. The bill was also amended so that it excepts the following industries: mercantile establishments, telegraph and telephone companies, laundries, hospitals and restaurants.

The workmen's compensation law was amended in many ways in the house.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

Horace Harbaugh, 30, Expires at
Room in Windsor

Horace Harbaugh, about thirty years of age, died this afternoon at 2:30 at his room at the Windsor hotel. Mr. Harbaugh went to work at the local Ford agency after dinner apparently in good health and had a coughing spell. He also suffered pains in his right side and when he did not feel relieved after a few minutes, he went to his room at the hotel, and in a few minutes died. The cause of the death is not known. Mr. Harbaugh's parents live at Attica, Indiana, and he had just returned yesterday from a visit with them. The body will be shipped to Attica for burial, it is said.

ARMY CHAPLAIN SPEAKS TONIGHT

William L. Sanders of Indianapolis
to Give Address at Win-My-
Chum Week Service.

DR. WALKER HERE LAST NIGHT

Address Results in 40 Signing Pledge
to Read Bible and Prayer Each Morning.

Chaplain William L. Sanders of Indianapolis will speak at the Win-My-Chum service of the Epworth League to be held at the Methodist church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Because of the great influence he exerted among the boys while in the service and because of the interesting way in which he tells his story of army life, Chaplain Sanders has gained a wide reputation. Miss Kelso will sing a solo at the meeting which will last one hour and be dismissed promptly on time in order that those wishing to attend the concert at the Christian church may reach there shortly after it has begun.

Dr. J. M. Walker's talk on "The Morning Watch" at the opening meeting of the series, last night, resulted in 40 young people signing the pledge to read the Bible and pray every morning. Dr. Walker is a convincing as well as an interesting speaker.

"We are accountable to God for every day of our lives," he said, during the course of his talk, "and if we expect to make every day worth while how can we afford to start forth without reading God's word and talking to Him? True enough there are times in the morning when we do not feel like praying but that is just the time that we need prayer more than any other."

"Too, we owe it to ourselves as well as to God to start at the beginning of each day with a pure heart and mind, free of envy, jealousy and such feelings. We can not do this without going to God in prayer at the opening of each day. How much easier it is to deal with our fellow men during the course of the day in a harmonious spirit if we have the inspiration of the Morning Watch," the speaker continued, in convincing his hearers of the importance of the habit.

Wednesday night is expected to be one of the "Red Letter" meetings of the week when Dr. Robert Brumlay, one of the leading figures in League work nationally, will speak and the Girls Glee Club will sing. Thursday night will be high school night and on Friday evening, short talks will be made by several of Rush county's returned soldiers. Jerome Caron will tell the story of "Going Over the Top".

REGULAR ARMY TO BE RETAINED IN FRANCE

Interpretation of General Orders Issued by Pershing and Made Public Today

ORDER OF SERVICE TO APPLY

(By United Press.)

Paris, Feb. 25.—American soldiers will return home in the order of their arrival at their respective division headquarters in France, General Pershing announced in general orders made public today. Divisions bearing regular army designation will be excluded, however.

Under assignment-combat troops; together with supply and labor units, will be returned in order of their service so far as they can be spared. By exception of the so called regular army division, the order would indicate that those units would be maintained as the army of occupation as long as necessary.

DAYLIGHT LAW HAS ITS DEFENDERS

Many Here Favor Continuance of Plan in Effect Last Summer
to Turn Clock Back an Hour

TOPIC OF HEATED ARGUMENTS

One Contention of Farmer Who Wants The Law Repealed Is
Not Successfully Answered

Whether the clock shall be turned back an hour again the last of March, thus reverting to the daylight saving schedule which was in effect last summer, is the subject of heated discussions with farmers arguing that the time should be left as it is and city dwellers taking the position that the daylight law is a great boon to workers.

There is little doubt but that the extra hour of daylight last summer was responsible for a great increase in the production of food-stuff in small gardens. It is also estimated that there was a great saving in electricity for householders.

Farmers, however, as a rule contend that the benefits derived by the inhabitants of towns and cities do not offset the drawbacks which they see in the law. Their chief contention is that the loss at least an hour a day because their men quit an hour earlier by the sun.

The question of the repeal of the law promises to stir up a fight in congress, with the rural congressmen arrayed against the city congressmen. A rider has been attached to the agricultural appropriation bill providing for the repeal of the law.

The issue was raised by the farmers of the county, who deluged their congressmen with appeals for repeal of the law. Those in favor of continuance of the daylight law have now been aroused and resolutions and individual messages are pouring into Washington, urging legislators to defeat the plan to annul the law.

No organized effort has been attempted here for or against the repeal of the law, but is understood that a number of farmers have written Senator James E. Watson and Representative R. N. Elliott, urging them to vote to repeal the law.

Although farmers complain that they lose an hour's time in the fields, it is declared by many who are against the repeal of the law that during the harvest, farmers work in the afternoon as long as it is light enough to see, regardless of the time.

Another complaint of farmers is that when they wish to do trading at night or attend some social function, they have to quit long before the sun goes down because of the clock being set back an hour. This complaint has not been successfully answered by those in favor of the law because it can not be denied that farmers are handicapped in this manner.

Whether the objections of the farmer outweigh the benefits derived by the city people will continue to contend that they are right. Congress will have to act one way or the other on the law, however, because the rider on the appropriation bill will have to be disposed of since a vote of the bill proper can not be voted.

Base Hospital No. 32 Due to be Sent Home, Messages Indicate

Indications that Base Hospital No. 32, in which Russell Kirkpatrick and Neff Ashworth of this county are enlisted men, will sail soon for the United States, are contained in messages which have been received by relatives of men with the hospital. Some cablegrams have instructed relatives to cease writing and others have stated that the unit was leaving last Saturday for St. Nazaire, a port of embarkation south of Brest. Miss Hazel Bennett, formerly of this city, went overseas with Base Hospital No. 32, but according to the last word received from her she had been sent to Italy for a rest.

NEW NAVAL LAWS BEING DISCUSSED

Revolutionary Changes Which Would Make War Virtually Impossible, Are Proposed

MUNITION SHIPS CONSIDERED

Under Operation The New Rules
"Freedom of Seas" Would Become a Reality

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 25.—President Wilson today stated he was "confident that the people of the country will rally with practical unanimity to the support of the league of nations."

The president expressed this belief in a telegram to Theodore Burton, president of the league of nations union, New York City.

Paris, Feb. 25.—Revolutionary changes in international naval laws charges, fitting in with the rules of the league of nations, which would make war virtually impossible, are now under discussion. Regulations under which munition warships travel from neutral to warring countries, would be completely overturned. Under their operation "freedom of the seas" would be a reality.

The principal points favored by the peace delegates regarding a munition shipment in the future, are:

TRIBBEY TO APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

Posey Township Man Announces
His Intentions When Motion For
New Trial is Overruled

ALSMAN TRIAL ON TOMORROW

John B. Tribbey, who was sentenced to a term of thirty days in the county jail and fined $50 and costs in the circuit court by a jury last Thursday, served notice on the clerk of the court and the prosecuting attorney today that he would appeal to the state supreme court following the refusal of Judge Sparks to grant him a new trial yesterday afternoon, when arguments on his motion were heard. Tribbey is at liberty pending the outcome of the appeal.

The trial of Mrs. Blanch Alsmann, who was accused of the same offense as Tribbey in an indictment, but will begin in the circuit court in the morning.

Judge Sparks went to Columbus this morning and it was said that he would return his decision in the election contest case in which he acted as special judge. The contest is over the office of the clerk of the court of Bartholomew county.

ASSESSORS WILL GET INSTRUCTIONS

Township Taxing Officials Called to Meet Saturday Preparatory to
Beginning Work.

WORD FROM THE STATE BOARD.

If Property is Assessed on Same
Basis and New Law Passes, Tax-
ables Will be Reduced.

The townships assessors of the county have been called by Earl Priest, county assessor, to meet Saturday, when the assessing period officially begins to receive their supplies and instructions which are being forwarded to the county assessors of the state by the state board of tax commissioners.

The supplies for the assessors arrived at the county auditor's office yesterday and were being arranged today for distribution. The assessors will begin making calls on taxpayers on Monday.

The instructors from the state board, which, according to word from Indianapolis, were prepared yesterday and put in the mails today, insist that the assessors live up to the strict letter of the law and demand "true cash value" returns unless the statute is changed by the legislature.

If assessors continue this year to take personal property at its "true cash value," as they have in the past, and the legislature passes the bill now pending which provides for assessing both personal property and real estate at fifty percent of its true cash value, the appraised value of the taxables of the county will be cut in two, because the instructions from the state board provide that in case the law is passed in its present form, the assessments shall be cut fifty percent.

It has always been the state law that property should be assessed at its real value, but the law has not been enforced to the letter. It has been the tendency in all counties to take property at much less than what it is really worth. For example, the average for household goods ranges from $40 to $150, and good farm land is generally assessed at about $40 an acre.

The state board's instructions as published in the Indianapolis Star today, lay emphasis on the provision of the law requiring that the oath must be administered to each taxpayer on the personal property schedule and the officials are reminded that there is a "severe penalty for an assessor who fails to administer such oath."

There are fifteen points outlined in the instructions, which follow:

"Within a few days you will be engaged in a most important duty, that of listing property for purposes of taxation. You have taken or will take an oath to list all property in accordance with the provisions of law. Kindly observe the following suggestions:

"List all property, real and personal, at its 'true cash value,' as the statute now requires.

"If the Legislature shall fix a 50 per cent basis for property valuation, assessors shall simply divide totals by two. The value of the whole must be ascertained before an assessor can determine a part of same.

"Value lands and improvements separately and carry total of same into column provided for that purpose.

"Use the schedules of last year in determining the values of automobiles, household goods, farm implements and machinery. These schedules are suggestive only, and if the value of property is known to be more, or less, than such a schedule would indicate, then list such property at its 'true value,' whatever that value may be.

consideration was that of meals for the election boards. In every precinct of the county meals had been ordered for a full board and in some cases those who had received the order had already bought the food required to feed the election officers, and are likely to stand a loss if their claims are not allowed.

The prediction yesterday that not fifty percent of the vote in the county would be cast, seemed to be holding true today. Voters were not turning out, largely because of a lack of interest in the special election. The weather also was handicap which it was expected would keep many voters at home, especially those living in the country a long distance from a voting place.

The vote in one precinct at one o'clock was believed to be a fair sample of the way the vote was being cast in the remainder of the precincts. In precinct No. 2 in Rushville, only sixty votes out of a possible 205 had been cast up until one o'clock. The bulk of them were cast between eleven and one o'clock when voters were going to their noon meal. It was not expected that many votes would be cast this afternoon. Most inspectors planned to close the polls at 4:15 if no votes were cast between 4 and 4:15.

EZRA BUFKIN, 71, IS DEAD

Succumbs at County Infirmary This Morning—Burial at Carthage

Ezra Bufkin, age 71, died this morning at 6 o'clock at the county infirmary. He is survived by one nephew, Murray Moore of near Carthage, and was a brother of Samuel Bufkin, who was killed a few weeks ago in an automobile accident at Greenfield. Burial will be made in the Friends cemetery at Carthage tomorrow afternoon, but definite arrangements for the services have not yet been completed.

French Soldiers Lead In World's Sacrifice

At the outbreak of the war the population of France was 36 millions and of these 6 millions have been offered on the altar of freedom, thereby leading every other nation. We of America must be very grateful for this and also for an invaluable remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments discovered by the peasants of France, which it is reported has saved many lives in America, prevented thousands of surgical operations and relieved incalculable suffering among its people. Geo. H. Mayr, for many years a prominent Chicago chemist, imports the ingredients and sells this remedy under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by Druggists Everywhere.—(Adv.)

Days Pickings

Loren Meek of Greensburg, began his duties as bookkeeper at the Rushville National bank yesterday. Mr. Meek was recently discharged from the spruce production division at Vancouver, Washington. Miss Anna Bohannon, who has been bookkeeper at the bank for several years will take a position as clerk at A. L. Gary's office.

A mistake was made in yesterday's issue of the Daily Republican in the report of the death of Phoebe Dudgeon at her home in Anderson township. Mrs. Dudgeon had been married, is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Laura Hasty, and two sons, Henry Dudgeon of this city and Jasper Dudgeon of Glenwood. The funeral was held at the late residence this afternoon.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then's when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It does not blister.

As first aid and a certain remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

The Reason Why

We Can Guarantee

If a machine is to be guaranteed for five years it must be built so it won't break down. Every part must be as strong as the rest—no weak points. Something besides "bull-strength and awkwardness" has been brought to bear in the production of the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader. The theory in developing this spreader has been to remove the unnecessary strain throughout the entire machine, so that the natural strength and staying qualities of good material and good workmanship, could develop the greatest possible strength and durability.

It was on this theory that the BULL DOG beater wheel and the NO-CHOKE Box were conceived and embodied as a part of this machine. These two features reduced the strain and heavy wear on the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL so that at least 30% of the usual strain on other spreaders is absolutely cut out by these inventions.

The SELF-OILING journal bearings, the Litchfield style of a single lever which starts, stops and regulates all parts of the machine, and the general simplicity cuts down the possibility for trouble and breakage to such an extent that the machine is practically "Fool Proof."

The front construction which the circle front and the Litchfield Style of bracing from the front axle to the cross bar under the machine, the ENDLESS conveyor with the SELF-CLEANING hinged sections, the self-aligning beater wheel bearings, the riveted teeth in the cylinder bars, the cross trussed and re-inforced frame, the steel hub wheel and other special features found only on the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL spreader, all combined give the great strength, durability and long life which enables the Litchfield Mfg. Co. to give every purchaser of a standard spreader a written contract guaranteeing it for five years.

All possible cause for trouble, breakage, and accident are studiously removed and overcome. This statement is strong and so is the machine. The Company is behind it and so am I.

Keeping The Daylight Law

Much comment is being made at the present time on the daylight saving plan. It has been argued pro and con many times in the past few days and efforts are being made to repeal it, but as yet without success. Those opposed to the law are mostly farmers who work from daylight until dark busy seasons of the year so that it really does not affect them greatly.

They have made no definite basis for their arguments except that they think that it should be changed as it was before the war. Those who wish to see the daylight act retained claim that without the extra hour of light, they would not have been able to raise the war garden they did last year and do many jobs that otherwise would have gone undone. The war is not over yet and this summer the good gardens will be of as great help as they were last year and the gardeners are asking that this law be left just as it is.

The office and factory man is the greater benefited by this plan which gives him a chance to do work at home that in other times he would not do. It enables him to complete his work in time to spend a few hours of daylight at home. Most homes have a garden in connection with them and in order that they may be tended as they should be the daylight system should not be changed. It was remarkable how little difficulty was caused, in the change last year; it was strange for a while but most people enjoyed getting out earlier in the morning and completing their work earlier in the day. The farmers say that during the harvest season they were not benefited as they should have been on account of the wet mornings as the hay could not be put up as early in the morning and that when six o'clock came their men would quit thus cutting the day short by an hour.

This was not the case in most instances for the farmers, especially during harvest, have it understood that time does not have any effect upon their working hours, for as long as hay will do to go in the mow, they work at it, even if it is until dark; and also during wheat harvest the binder runs as long as the driver can see how to drive. During threshing the farmer claimed that he was cheated out of an hour's work from his men because they would quit work at six o'clock. This was not the case always however, for the threshing machines ran as late last year as the light would permit the machine to be fed. As a whole the plan was a great success and should be given another trial. Give the man in the office and factory a chance to do something for himself.

Will the Peace Conference after President Wilson's departure be something like the play of Hamlet with Hamlet left out?

The only things you can never get too much of are facts.

Honesty in politics would surely pay if somebody would only try it.

No card system so far introduced will put brains into a man's head.

In the world are two sorts of men—those who make the money and those who get it.

Man sprang from monkeys all right. What a pity it is that he didn't spring further!

Collins. The jury was out less than ten minutes.

THE MEN IN CLASS A1

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition, not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely. The bodily functions are impaired and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is generally the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules periodically and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be enlivened, your muscles supple, your mind active, and your body capable of hard work.

Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil—the kind your great-grandfather used. Two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. Remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL Brand. In three sizes, sealed packages.

The B. Y. C. D. of the First Baptist church will give a box supper Wednesday evening in the basement of the church. Ice cream and cake will be for sale. Every one is invited to attend. 296c2 been officially designated for this year. If there are any changes to be made assessors will be advised of same. Such changes, if any, will be very slight.

"List all dogs with descriptions of same, but withhold receipts until it is finally determined what the tax shall be. There will be a change from the present law.

"Assessors are instructed to be exceedingly careful in filling out the personal property schedules for manufactories, public utilities, merchandise stores, etc.

"After assessing corporations on their tangible property assessors shall leave with same blanks for corporate reports, which shall be made in duplicate and filed later with county auditors, who shall lay same before boards of review to be assessed for corporate excess.

"Administer the oath to the personal property schedule to each taxpayer. There is a severe penalty for an assessor who fails to administer such oath.

"County assessors should instruct township assessors and their deputies as to the local market value on the 1st day of March of all articles that have such value. There shall be no agreement among assessors on any prices less than the market values where such prices are known.

"Assessors shall make special inquiry for diamonds and other valuable jewelry and list same at their true cash value, subject to no discount except such, if any, as may be allowed by statute.

"Wherever possible assessors

shall view the property to be assessed. Better judgment may be formed as to values in this way.

"Township assessors shall make reports to county assessors on items set out in form prepared for that purpose on the following dates: March 15, March 29 and April 12. County assessors shall compile these returns and send reports to state board on March 17, March 31 and April 14. Blanks shall be obtained through the office of county auditor.

"Assess materials and supplies belonging to railroads as heretofore, unless notified to the contrary. Some misapprehension regarding this matter has been created through the newspapers.

"County assessors shall state on each of their reports whether the property in their respective counties is being assessed as the law requires."

Amusements

Peggy Hyland at Mystic

Peggy Hyland will be shown at the Mystic theatre tonight in "The Girl With no Regrets," and as an extra attraction, "Mutt and Jeff at the Front" will be on the program tomorrow. Carrol McComas and Richard Tucker in "When Love is King," will be shown and a comedy, "The Shakesville Slenth," is also on the program. Friday a special picture featuring Harry Carey in "A Woman's Fool," and Saturday William Anderson in "Red Blood and Yellow," will be shown.

Fred Stone at Princess.

Fred Stone is presented tonight at the Princess theatre in "The Goat". This is one of the best pictures that Mr. Stone has ever appeared in. Thursday and Friday a special picture, "Sporting Life" is on the program.

A group of shapely bathing girls in a boxed set and a woman's kind if careless remark, are what caused Chuck McCarthy to be bitten by the "moving bug". Chuck is the young iron worker hero of "The Goat", the new Artercraft Picture in which Fred Stone is starred.

At the story's start he is shown working at the Filmercraft Studio as an iron worker, whither he has been sent for the day on some construction work. Then the bathing girls come into his life and he makes a thrilling rescue of the leading lady's pet monkey. She wants to thank him and carelessly tells him that he should be in the movies. No more encouragement is needed. The next day Chuck presents himself to the casting director of the Filmercraft Studio. He rest of the story is given up to telling of Chuck's adventures in the pictures. The story is said to be a laugh from start to finish. It was written by Frances Marion, and is said to represent that scenario writer at her best.

NERVOUSNESS ON THE DECLINE

Doctors Encouraged, They Hold Out Hope for All

"Nothing wrong but my nerves". We hear it at home, at work and everywhere. Certainly, nervousness is a disease. A man or woman might better have a broken leg than a shattered, run down nervous system.

Overwork and worry drains the nerve cells and centers of all their strength and vitality, then you get your sleepless nights, poor blood, nervousness, worry and fear. The better doctors of today know just what to do in cases of this kind. A few weeks' use of Phosphated Iron rarely fails to strengthen and feed the Phosphate-hungry nerve centers.

Phosphated Iron certainly does take hold. The way the majority of patients come back is remarkable.

What a change in appearance, too. The cheeks become filled out and flushed with the healthy ruddy glow that only pure, red ironized blood can give. Eyes sparkle, their step has the spring and swing of youth and their whole system seems to be alive with energy and good spirits.

Mr. Nervous Man or Woman, Phosphated Iron will do all this for you if you will give it a chance. Do not drag around, all in and half dead another day when help is so near. Get busy! and be a live one once again!

To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to give you pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

The World's Tractor

This one man single unit two wheeled Tractor weighs 1700 pounds and in ten hours will plow four acres. Disc twenty acres with a seven-foot tandem disc. Harrows forty-five to fifty acres with a 15-foot harrow. Plant twenty to twenty-five acres of corn, cultivate 20 acres with a two-row cultivator.

Harvest ten acres with a corn binder.

Cut twenty acres of wheat with an eight-foot binder.

Mow fifteen acres with five-foot mower rake or pull a hay loader; and in addition can be used for belt work not requiring to exceed ten to twelve horse power.

This Tractor has been in use for four years and is not an experiment. It is superior in every detail of construction.

When the Indiana Silo Company went into the Tractor business four years ago, they found the trouble with Tractors was that they were always laid up for repairs. They have solved that part; they have so constructed it so as to reduce repair bill to a minimum and is so simple any boy can operate.

Tractor will be in Rushville, Saturday, February 15th, and will be more than pleased to demonstrate it as soon as weather permits.

A FEW REASONS WHY WHITTALL RUGS and CARPETS ARE SOLD BY US

No Rugs or Carpets made in America compare with Whittall's in quality, design and coloring. These facts are recognized where Whittall goods are known, and you have only to see these beautiful floor coverings to grow as enthusiastic in their praise as we have been since we began to feature them five years ago. All Whittall designs are faithful productions of the choicest Orientals. The yarns used are all imported from the Orient, and the best vegetable dyes only make their fast colors, which are as durable as possible to produce. They are made in the widest range of sizes, in six different grades.

IT IS TRUE

That not much building is being done these days, but folks are improving their old homes instead of building new ones.

Interior decoration is getting considerable consideration. Many people are keeping that promise they made to themselves—"To paper those rooms as soon as the war is over." Now is the best time for you to keep that promise, too, while our stock is new and fresh.

Many of our customers have been so pleased with our 1919 decorations they have made selections for every room in the house and are having it applied now to avoid the usual spring "Rush." Why not profit by their wisdom and make your selections soon? We are glad to suggest appropriate combinations.

TO SEND PHOTOS OF GRAVES

Red Cross Will Forward Pictures to Relatives of Dead Soldiers.

Although all the bodies of soldiers who were killed in the recent war will not be brought back, the Red Cross has made arrangements to photograph all the identified graves and send pictures of them to the nearest relative. Mrs. Flora Jackson of this city has received the picture of the grave of her son, Private Carl Jackson, who was the first Rush county boy to be killed in action during the recent war. Each photograph will be mounted on a cardboard folding frame, on one side of which will be inscribed the soldier's record.

Many Palestine children have been blinded by picking up unexploded bombs. The Red Cross is working on plans to teach these unfortunates remunerative trades.

HOW WEAK, NERVOUS WOMEN QUICKLY GAIN VIGOROUS HEALTH AND STRONG NERVES 7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

A Vigorous, Healthy Body, Sparkling Eyes and Health-Colored Cheeks Come in Two Weeks, Says Discoverer of Bio-feren.

World's Grandest Health Builder
Costs Nothing Unless It Gives to Women the Buoyant Health They Long For.

It is safe to say that right here in this big city are tens of thousands of weak, nervous, run-down, depressed women who in two weeks' time could make themselves so healthy, so attractive and so keen-minded that they would compel the admiration of all their friends.

The vital health building elements that these despondent women lack are all plentifully supplied in Bio-feren.

If you are ambitious, crave success in life, want to have a healthy, vigorous body, clear skin and eyes that show no dullness, make up your mind to get a package of Bio-feren right away.

It costs but little and you can get an original package at any druggist anywhere.

Take two tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—seven a day for seven days—then one after meals till all are gone. Then if you don't feel twice as good, look twice as attractive and feel twice as strong as before you started your money is waiting for you. It belongs to you, for the discoverer of Bio-feren doesn't want one penny of it unless it fulfills all claims.

Note to Physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren. It is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin; Calcium Glycero-phosphate; Iron Peptonate; Manganese Peptonate; Ext. Nux Vomica; Powd. Ben-tian; Phenolphthalein; Oleoresin Capsicum; Kolo.

POLISH TEXT BOOKS USED IN INDIANA

Parochial Schools in Northwestern Part of State Bear Stamp "Made in Germany"

REPORT BY CARL FRITSCHKE

Ninety Percent of Boys Reach Maturity Without Learning a Trade, Investigation Discloses

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 25.—"Polish text books used in parochial schools in northwestern Indiana bear the stamp 'made in Germany,' and among these are those from which the pupils of the parochial schools are taught the history of the United States," said Carl Fritschke, in reviewing his experiences in inquiries conducted throughout the state, and especially in Lake county. Fritschke is a field agent for the United States department of labor.

A report dealing with the conditions among children of school age in northwestern Indiana was made public today by Mr. Fritschke and includes a variety of revelations regarding the conditions existing among the foreign population of that section of Indiana. The report as prepared in connection with the Strode-VanAuken bill providing for establishing an Indiana Free Employment Service, and sets forth a portion of the work which will be undertaken by the junior section of the employment service in event the bill is enacted into law. It also sets forth some of the conditions which have been endured in Indiana regarding the teaching of German and other foreign languages in schools in the Hoosier state up to the time the United States entered the war against the Central powers. "Until this year Polish text books have been used almost exclusively but now there seems to be a change and they are turning toward the use of the English text books," said Mr. Fritschke.

"Many parents have property and are comfortably fixed, but their boys must work upon reaching fourteen in order to satisfy the demand of the parents for money. No consideration is given to the future welfare of the children, by the parents' insofar as influencing them to stick to one trade is concerned.

"As a rule the boy shifts from one job to another, always making a change where he can make a few dollars. The result is that ninety percent of these boys of foreign birth reach maturity without having learned any trade, and the sole ideal that the best job is the one that pays the most money. The other ten percent, having found a type of work they like, have upon maturity learned a trade and become substantial citizens. In other words, in East Chicago the melting pot is melting ten percent and the other ninety percent is growing up without ever coming in contact with the type of ideals for which American citizenship stands.

"The major portion of these children only reach the fifth or sixth grade by the time they are fourteen years of age, and then quit school for good.

"With the exception of the Irish Catholic schools, the Polish is the only nationality which maintains large schools for its children. The former is the greatest aid to the Americanization forces in East Chicago, all subjects being taught in the English language.

"These schools are under the auspices and financed by the Polish Catholic church, and, with few exceptions, the Polish language is used exclusively in the class rooms.

"I was told by one official at East Chicago that upon going into school rooms where the children were seven and eight years of age that when he made an examination in English, the instructor would repeat what he said in Polish before the children, born in America, could understand what he said to them. Fourteen teachers are the sole instructors of between eight and nine hundred pupils in one northwestern Indiana school.

"The German Lutherans have their own schools. They use the German language. They sing in German and pray in German. They publish their own text books. Authorities in northwestern Indiana are urging that teachers be compelled to pass the state board of education examination before they are permitted to teach in any school, public, private or parochial, in this state. They also urge that the children be taught something about what American citizenship means. They are not getting an American education."

Touching upon another phase of the results of the existing conditions under the system of education and environment in the foreign settlements of Lake county, it was also stated that "the Roumanian King of Indiana Harbor said he controlled eight hundred votes."

Girls as well as boys seek employment long before reaching their maturity, it was stated, and many of them marry at an extremely early age in order to escape attending parochial schools where they are taught in foreign languages.

Snuff chewers and crap shooters are developed at an early age in underground caves dug by youthful gangsters, who seldom go home before two or three o'clock in the morning, he said.

"At the annual Father and Son banquet 225 boys and their fathers mostly Boy Scouts attended. None of the Boy Scouts who attend Polish schools were permitted to attend this banquet, which was held with the idea of pumping a little American doctrine into the boys. They were forbidden to go to the banquet by the Polish teachers. We must Americanize the children right now and must start right in the schools. So far as the Americanization of Poles in Northwestern Indiana is concerned, we depend upon the Polish priests to do it. He perpetuates the same old European ideals he brought over with him.

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—head-aches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an acid-stomach is the real cause of the trouble.

Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloated out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach miseries. Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health—if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food—if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day and see how much better you will feel.

ARE ESSENTIAL TO BRITISH INDUSTRY

Pig-Minder, Beer-Carrier, Pip-maker, Face Faker, Seek Army Discharges at Once

THEY CLAIM THEY ARE NEEDED

Declare That Their Services Are Essential to the Welfare of Industrial Procedures

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 4.—(By Mail.—Onion peelers and cat teachers are essential to British industry.

An onion peeler, high in the ranks of his profession, and one of the most eminent cat teachers in the entire British army are authorities for this. They have applied for discharge from the army, stating their occupations, setting forth their expertness and their importance to industry, and requesting that industry

Asserts Rheumatic Impurities Can't Stay in Body

When My Prescription Goes in, Rheumatism Goes Out Along With All Poisonous Uric Acid, Says Discoverer. James H. Allen

Because he was crippled with terrible rheumatism and unable to work, and because doctors failed to help him, Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester decided to help himself.

Persistent study, ceaseless patience and frequent experiments convinced him that before anyone could be free from rheumatism the poisons and impurities often called uric acid deposits, must be dissolved in the joints, ligaments and muscles and expelled from the system.

It took some years to get this idea into the form of a prescription, but perseverance finally conquered and in a very short period every pain and twinge and trace of rheumatism was forced to flee and Mr. Allen turned himself from a rheumatic wreck into a strong, healthy, robust man.

So pleased was he with his success that he named this wonderful medicine Allenru. Many others cursed with the agony of rheumatism tried it with results that were almost magical.

Requests for Allenru became so numerous that a decision was reached to let sufferers know of the discovery through the newspapers and now druggists throughout the country dispense the Allenru prescription or can get it for you on short notice.—(Adv.)

be not unduly handicapped by their longer retention in the armed service of His Britannic Majesty.

Another empire builder whose importance to industry apparently has been overlooked describes his profession as that of "expert pig-minder." He asks immediate release, lest British industry find his longer absence in the army insupportable. He speaks for himself only, but the natural implication is that the entire body of pig-minders in the armed service will have to be discharged forthwith, that in all things the pigs may be minded.

An expert beer-carrier also clamors for return to industry and civilian life. He sets forth that efficiency of the British smelters is being greatly reduced, owing to the fact that the laborers are forced to do their own beer carrying while the nation's expert beer-carriers are wasting their time carrying rifles. Employers and the ministry of munitions have recognized the trade of beer carrying even during the war. A beer-carrier gets $15 a week at the smelters, the employees furnishing the salary. An expert is one who can carry most of the beer outside of his own person, spilling but a negligible quantity down his throat.

Several face-fakers have applied for early demobilization, alleging occupation is essential to the well-being of large classes of society. A face-faker, in London parlance, is one who paints out black eyes and otherwise changes the appearance of a countenance. The services of these gentlemen are said to be much in demand by robbers, murderers, wife deserters, all-round crooks, and other general purpose undesirables.

An extraordinary number of pip-makers also crave opportunity to do their share in the great reconstruction. Pip-making is a subsidiary of the jam manufacturing business. The expert pip-makers, most of whom are women, turn out great quantities of wooden seeds to put into raspberry jam. Englishmen call these seeds pips. They also call the stuff the wooden pips are mixed up with raspberry jam. It is made of sticky material, well flavored, that passes admirably for raspberry pulp when it has plenty of well made wooden seeds mixed with it. Naturally, jam consumers have been pretty much up against it during the war, the supply of wooden seeds being much restricted by reason of the presence of so many pip-makers in the army, where only machinegun jams required their attention.

CHICAGO CLOSES BIG FIGHT TODAY

Finishes one of its Hottest Municipal Campaigns With the Primary Election.

OLD TIME BLUDGEONS IN USE

Many Familiar Words Were in the Campaign Oratory Such as Gas, Traction, Civil Service.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Chicago closed one of its hottest municipal campaigns with the primaries here today.

All the old time bludgeons were in use by the six mayoralty candidates with a few new ones invented by the war.

Gas, traction, civil service and other familiar words rang in the campaign's oratory. The war brought charges, counter charges and promises in regard to reconstruction, care of the soldier and a clean city to back up war time prohibitions.

Then, too, the war figured in attacks on Mayor William Hale Thompson, candidate for reelection. Thompson's attitude in failing to receive Marshall "Papa" Joffre and his invitations to peace leaguers to meet in Chicago were referred to constantly as an indication of his

war attitude. "Big Bill" came back vigorously.

Aside from socialist candidates the big battle was between six men—all fighting each other as well as the entire opposition ticket. Candidates for mayor were:

"Big Bill" William Hale Thompson, republican, now mayor, defeated at the primaries last fall as a candidate for U. S. senator.

Capt. Charles E. Merriam, republican, defeated in 1911 by Carter H. Harrison in the same sort of race. Merriam, university professor, alderman and lately red cross official in Europe, represented the "reform" element while in the council.

Harry E. Olson, republican, municipal judge, put forward by "harmony" republicans. He was defeated by Thompson in 1915.

County Clerk Robert M. Sweitzer, democrat, the "harmony" candidate for his party.

T. W. Carey, democrat, running on a platform calling for "good utilities management."

States Attorney MacClay Hoyne, independent, especially vigorous opponent of Thompson. Carter H. Harrison, five time mayor, may enter the race by petition upon his return from Europe, where he is with the Red Cross.

NEW LAW MIGHT AFFECT ELECTION

Some Question Raised on Legality of Vote Today Because of Bill Being Signed Yesterday

ITS TERMS NOT KNOWN HERE

County Officials Do Not Believe New
Measure Will Have Any Effect—
Reduces Election Boards

An interesting question developed today in connection with the special election to determine whether or not a county general hospital should be erected on the old fair grounds east of the city.

There was some doubt about the legality of the election because of the fact that the new county hospital bill passed by the legislature, became a law yesterday afternoon when it was signed by Governor James P. Goodrich.

The belief was expressed that the election might be declared illegal if the terms of the new act covering a special election to vote on the hospital question, do not conform with the old law under which the election was held today. However, it was pointed out by attorneys, if the changes made in the new law are only slight and immaterial, there is a chance that the legality of today's election would not be questioned.

No one here, so far as is known, is acquainted with the terms of the bill as finally passed. John A. Tittsworth, county attorney, was in the house of representatives the day it passed; it was reported at the auditor's office this afternoon. Mr. Tittsworth went to Indianapolis this afternoon and could not be consulted on the matter. It was stated at the auditor's office that a rider was attached to the bill in the senate, but it is not known what the rider provided or whether or not it is included in the bill as finally passed.

Those who have been in close touch with the preparations for the election were not inclined to take much stock in the suggestion that the election might be illegal. It is the understanding of county officials at the auditor's office that the bill which became a law yesterday is merely an amendment to the present law providing that the election officials at a special hospital election shall consist of only an inspector and clerk. It is stated that the bill was introduced for the purpose of cutting down the expenses of such an election because the original law provides for a full election board in each precinct, such as is used at a general election.

Representative W. R. Jinnett of this county telephoned County Auditor McMellin yesterday afternoon that the bill had been signed by the governor and an effort was made to notify every election inspector in the county that the election board should consist of only one inspector and one clerk. If any precincts had full boards, it was doubtful whether the commissioners could allow the claims for pay legally.

"STILL" HUNT FOR GYPSIES

Local Authorities Search for Band
Committing Petty Thefts.

County and city officials were preparing to leave this afternoon on a "still" hunt for a band of gypsies which is said to have been committing petty thefts in various parts of the county. The authorities were in search of the gypsies yesterday, but did not get in sight of them, although it was learned that they were in camp east of Rushville. Chief of Police Seward, Prosecutor Stevens and some of the county officials were preparing to renew the search this afternoon in the vicinity of where the band was reported to be located.

Paul Spacey, in Jail Here, Said to be Wanted in Connorsville.

Paul Spacey, who is in jail here on a charge of issuing a check without funds in the bank, is under suspended sentence to the state reformatory for the same offense, according to local authorities. It is stated that he was sentenced in the Fayette circuit court at Connorsville for passing bogus paper but is not known whether the Fayette county authorities will take charge of him. Spacey, who is said to have been making his home at Glenwood, passed a check at T. E. McAllister's pool room for $15 and had no money in the bank. An affidavit was filed against him in Squire J. P. Steech's court several days. Spacey is unable to give bond.

HUN LANGUAGE IS ELIMINATED

House Passes McCray Bill This Afternoon, 97 to 0 Under Suspension of Rules

RESTORES RAIL COMMISSION

Report Recommending Abolishing of
Public Service Commission
Adopted in House

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 25.—The German language was eliminated from the Indiana grade schools when the house this afternoon, by a vote of 97 to 0, passed the McCray bill under suspension of the rules. The bill prevents teaching of the German language in all grade schools of Indiana and provides that English shall be used in all instructions. German has been used in private and parochial schools of the state.

The lower house of the legislature today went on record in favor of abolishing the public service commission when it adopted a minority committee report on the Laughlin bill, which would restore the old railroad commission.

The action came as a big surprise when the committee reported out the bill, the majority favoring indefinite postponement. It was expected that the house would adopt it after some discussion in which the work of the committee was attacked, but the minority report recommending that the measure be passed, was adopted.

The majority report recommending passage of the McKinley bill, regulating the hours which women may work, which amends the bill so that it would limit the hours to nine a day instead of eight, was adopted. The bill was also amended so that it excepts the following industries: mercantile establishments, telegraph and telephone companies, laundries, hospitals and restaurants.

The workmen's compensation law was amended in many ways in the house.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

Horace Harbaugh, 30, Expires at
Room in Windsor

Horace Harbaugh, about thirty years of age, died this afternoon at 2:30 at his room at the Windsor hotel. Mr. Harbaugh went to work at the local Ford agency after dinner apparently in good health and had a coughing spell. He also suffered pains in his right side and when he did not feel relieved after a few minutes, he went to his room at the hotel, and in a few minutes died. The cause of the death is not known. Mr. Harbaugh's parents live at Attica, Indiana, and he had just returned yesterday from a visit with them. The body will be shipped to Attica for burial, it is said.

ARMY CHAPLAIN SPEAKS TONIGHT

William L. Sanders of Indianapolis
to Give Address at Win-My-
Chum Week Service.

DR. WALKER HERE LAST NIGHT

Address Results in 40 Signing Pledge
to Read Bible and Prayer Each Morning.

Chaplain William L. Sanders of Indianapolis will speak at the Win-My-Chum service of the Epworth League to be held at the Methodist church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Because of the great influence he exerted among the boys while in the service and because of the interesting way in which he tells his story of army life, Chaplain Sanders has gained a wide reputation. Miss Kelso will sing a solo at the meeting which will last one hour and be dismissed promptly on time in order that those wishing to attend the concert at the Christian church may reach there shortly after it has begun.

Dr. J. M. Walker's talk on "The Morning Watch" at the opening meeting of the series, last night, resulted in 40 young people signing the pledge to read the Bible and pray every morning. Dr. Walker is a convincing as well as an interesting speaker.

"We are accountable to God for every day of our lives," he said, during the course of his talk, "and if we expect to make every day worth while how can we afford to start forth without reading God's word and talking to Him? True enough there are times in the morning when we do not feel like praying but that is just the time that we need prayer more than any other."

"Too, we owe it to ourselves as well as to God to start at the beginning of each day with a pure heart and mind, free of envy, jealousy and such feelings. We can not do this without going to God in prayer at the opening of each day. How much easier it is to deal with our fellow men during the course of the day in a harmonious spirit if we have the inspiration of the Morning Watch," the speaker continued, in convincing his hearers of the importance of the habit.

Wednesday night is expected to be one of the "Red Letter" meetings of the week when Dr. Robert Brumley, one of the leading figures in League work nationally, will speak and the Girls Glee Club will sing. Thursday night will be high school night and on Friday evening, short talks will be made by several of Rush county's returned soldiers. Jerome Caron will tell the story of "Going Over the Top".

REGULAR ARMY TO BE RETAINED IN FRANCE

Interpretation of General Orders Is-

ORDER OF SERVICE TO APPLY

(By United Press.)

Paris, Feb. 25.—American soldiers will return home in the order of their arrival at their respective division headquarters in France, General Pershing announced in general orders made public today. Divisions bearing regular army designation will be excluded, however.

Under assignment combat troops, together with supply and labor units, will be returned in order of their service so far as they can be spared. By exception of the so called regular army division, the order would indicate that those units would be maintained as the army of occupation as long as necessary.

DAYLIGHT LAW HAS ITS DEFENDERS

Many Here Favor Continuance of
Plan in Effect Last Summer
to Turn Clock Back an Hour

TOPIC OF HEATED ARGUMENTS

One Contention of Farmer Who
Wants The Law Repealed is
Not Successfully Answered

Whether the clock shall be turned back an hour again the last of March, thus reverting to the daylight saving schedule which was in effect last summer, is the subject of heated discussions with farmers arguing that the time should be left as it is and city dwellers taking the position that the daylight law is a great boon to workers.

There is little doubt but that the extra hour of daylight last summer was responsible for a great increase in the production of foodstuffs in small gardens. It is also estimated that there was a great saving in electricity for householders.

Farmers, however, as a rule contend that the benefits derived by the inhabitants of towns and cities do not offset the drawbacks which they see in the law. Their chief contention is that the loss at least an hour a day because their men quit an hour earlier by the sun.

The question of the repeal of the law promises to stir up a fight in congress, with the rural congressmen arrayed against the city congressmen. A rider has been attached to the agricultural appropriation bill providing for the repeal of the law.

The issue was raised by the farmers of the county, who deluged their congressmen with appeals for repeal of the law. Those in favor of continuance of the daylight law have now been aroused and resolutions and individual messages are pouring into Washington, urging legislators to defeat the plan to annul the law.

No organized effort has been attempted here for or against the repeal of the law, but is understood that a number of farmers have written Senator James E. Watson and Representative R. N. Elliott, urging them to vote to repeal the law.

Although farmers complain that they lose an hour's time in the fields, it is declared by many who are against the repeal of the law that during the harvest, farmers work in the afternoon as long as it is light enough to see, regardless of the time.

Another complaint of farmers is that when they wish to do trading at night or attend some social function, they have to quit long before the sun goes down because of the clock being set back an hour. This complaint has not been successfully answered by those in favor of the law because it can not be denied that farmers are handicapped in this manner.

Whether the objections of the farmer outweigh the benefits derived by the city people will continue to contend that they are right. Congress will have to act one way or the other on the law, however, because the rider on the appropriation bill will have to be disposed of since a vote of the bill proper can not be dodged.

Indications that Base Hospital No. 32, in which Russell Kirkpatrick and Neff Ashworth of this county are enlisted men, will sail soon for the United States, are contained in messages which have been received by relatives of men with the hospital. "Freedom of Seas" Would

Washington, Feb. 25.—President Wilson today stated he was "confident that the people of the country will rally with practical unanimity to the support of the league of nations."

The president expressed this belief in a telegram to Theodore Burton, president of the league of nations union, New York City.

Paris, Feb. 25.—Revolutionary changes in international naval laws charges, fitting in with the rules of the league of nations, which would make war virtually impossible, are now under discussion. Regulations under which munition warships travel from neutral to warring countries, would be completely overturned. Under their operation "freedom of the seas" would be a reality.

The principal points favored by the peace delegates regarding a munition shipment in the future, are:

ALSMAN TRIAL ON TOMORROW

John B. Tribbey, who was sentenced to a term of thirty days in the county jail and fined $50 and costs in the circuit court by a jury last Thursday, served notice on the clerk of the court and the prosecuting attorney today that he would appeal to the state supreme court following the refusal of Judge Sparks to grant him a new trial yesterday afternoon, when arguments on his motion were heard. Tribbey is at liberty pending the outcome of the appeal.

The trial of Mrs. Blanch Alsmann, who was accused of the same offense as Tribbey in an indictment, but will begin in the circuit court in the morning.

Judge Sparks went to Columbus this morning and it was said that he would return his decision in the election contest case in which he acted as special judge. The contest is over the office of the clerk of the court of Bartholomew county.

ASSESSORS WILL GET INSTRUCTIONS

Township Taxing Officials Called to Meet Saturday Preparatory to
Beginning Work.

WORD FROM THE STATE BOARD.

If Property is Assessed on Same
Basis and New Law Passes, Tax-
ables Will be Reduced.

The townships assessors of the county have been called by Earl Priest, county assessor, to meet Saturday, when the assessing period officially begins to receive their supplies and instructions which are being forwarded to the county assessors of the state by the state board of tax commissioners.

The supplies for the assessors arrived at the county auditor's office yesterday and were being arranged today for distribution. The assessors will begin making calls on taxpayers on Monday.

The instructions from the state board, which, according to word from Indianapolis, were prepared yesterday and put in the mails today, insist that the assessors live up to the strict letter of the law and demand "true cash value" returns unless the statute is changed by the legislature.

If assessors continue this year to take personal property at its "true cash value," as they have in the past, and the legislature passes the bill now pending which provides for assessing both personal property and real estate at fifty percent of its true cash value, the appraised value of the taxables of the county will be cut in two, because the instructions from the state board provide that in case the law is passed in its present form, the assessments shall be cut fifty percent.

It has always been the state law that property should be assessed at its real value, but the law has not been enforced to the letter. It has been the tendency in all counties to take property at much less than what it is really worth. For example, the average for household goods ranges from $40 to $150, and good farm land is generally assessed at about $40 an acre.

The state board's instructions as published in the Indianapolis Star today, lay emphasis on the provision of the law requiring that the oath must be administered to each taxpayer on the personal property schedule and the officials are reminded that there is a "severe penalty for an assessor who fails to administer such oath."

There are fifteen points outlined in the instructions, which follow:

"Within a few days you will be engaged in a most important duty, that of listing property for purposes of taxation. You have taken or will take an oath to list all property in accordance with the provisions of law. Kindly observe the following suggestions:

"List all property, real and personal, at its 'true cash value,' as the statute now requires.

"If the Legislature shall fix a 50 per cent basis for property valuation, assessors shall simply divide totals by two. The value of the whole must be ascertained before an assessor can determine a part of same.

"Value lands and improvements separately and carry total of same into column provided for that purpose.

"Use the schedules of last year in determining the values of automobiles, household goods, farm implements and machinery. These schedules are suggestive only, and if the value of property is known to be more, or less, than such a schedule would indicate, then list such property at its 'true value,' whatever that value may be.

consideration was that of meals for the election boards. In every precinct of the county meals had been ordered for a full board and in some cases those who had received the order had already bought the food required to feed the election officers, and are likely to stand a loss if their claims are not allowed.

The prediction yesterday that not fifty percent of the vote in the county would be cast, seemed to be holding true today. Voters were not turning out, largely because of a lack of interest in the special election. The weather also was handicapping which it was expected would keep many voters at home, especially those living in the country, a long distance from a voting place.

The vote in one precinct at one o'clock was believed to be a fair sample of the way the vote was being cast in the remainder of the precincts. In precinct No. 2 in Rushville, only sixty votes out of a possible 205 had been cast up until one o'clock. The bulk of them were cast between eleven and one o'clock when voters were going to their noon meal. It was not expected that many votes would be cast this afternoon. Most inspectors planned to close the polls at 4:15 if no votes were cast between 4 and 4:15.

EZRA BUFKIN, 71, IS DEAD

Succumbs at County Infirmary This Morning—Burial at Carthage

Ezra Bufkin, age 71, died this morning at 6 o'clock at the county infirmary. He is survived by one nephew, Murray Moore of near Carthage, and was a brother of Samuel Bufkin, who was killed a few weeks ago in an automobile accident at Greenfield. Burial will be made in the Friends cemetery at Carthage tomorrow afternoon, but definite arrangements for the services have not yet been completed.

French Soldiers Lead In World's Sacrifice

At the outbreak of the war the population of France was 36 millions and of these 6 millions have been offered on the altar of freedom, thereby leading every other nation. We of America must be very grateful for this and also for an invaluable remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments discovered by the peasants of France, which it is reported has saved many lives in America, prevented thousands of surgical operations and relieved incalculable suffering among its people. Gen. H. Mayr, for many years a prominent Chicago chemist, imports the ingredients and sells this remedy under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by Druggists Everywhere. (Adv.)

Days Pickings

Loren Meek of Greensburg, began his duties as bookkeeper at the Rushville National bank yesterday. Mr. Meek was recently discharged from the spruce production division at Vancouver, Washington. Miss Anna Bohannon, who has been bookkeeper at the bank for several years will take a position as clerk at A. L. Gary's office.

A mistake was made in yesterday's issue of the Daily Republican in the report of the death of Phoebe Dudgeon at her home in Anderson township. Mrs. Dudgeon had been married, is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Laura Hasty, and two sons, Henry Dudgeon of this city and Jasper Dudgeon of Glenwood. The funeral was held at the late residence this afternoon.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It does not blister.

As first aid and a certain remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frost-bitten feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

Income Tax Return Blanks

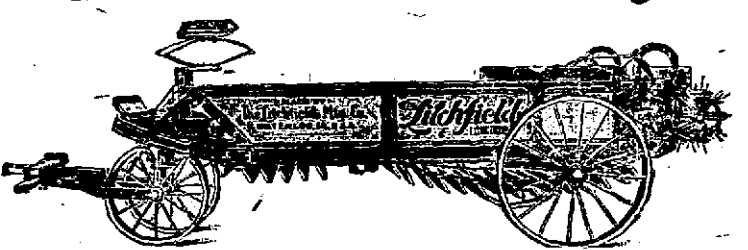

may be secured at this bank now. Should be filed with the Collector of Internal Revenue by March 15th.

The Reason Why

We Can Guarantee

If a machine is to be guaranteed for five years it must be built so it won't break down. Every part must be as strong as the rest—no weak points. Something besides "bullstrength and awkwardness" has been brought to bear in the production of the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader. The theory in developing this spreader has been to remove the unnecessary strain throughout the entire machine, so that the natural strength and staying qualities of good material and good workmanship, could develop the greatest possible strength and durability.

It was on this theory that the BULL DOG beater wheel and the NO-CHOKE Box were conceived and embodied as a part of this machine. These two features reduced the strain and heavy wear on the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL so that at least 30% of the usual strain on other spreaders is absolutely cut out by these inventions.

The SELF-OILING journal bearings, the Litchfield style of a single lever which starts, stops and regulates all parts of the machine, and the general simplicity cuts down the possibility for trouble and breakage to such an extent that the machine is practically "Fool Proof."

The front construction which the circle front and the Litchfield Style of bracing from the front axle to the cross bar under the machine, the END-LESS conveyor with the SELF-CLEANING hinged sections, the self-aligning beater wheel bearings, the riveted teeth in the cylinder bars, the cross trussed and re-inforced frame, the steel hub wheel and other special features found only on the RUSHVILLE SPECIAL Spreader, all combined give the great strength, durability and long life which enables the Litchfield Mfg. Co. to give every purchaser of a standard spreader a written contract guaranteeing it for five years.

All possible cause for trouble, breakage, and accident, are studiously removed and overcome. This statement is strong and so is the machine. The Company is behind it and so am I.

Keeping The Daylight Law

Much comment is being made at the present time on the daylight saving plan. It has been argued pro and con many times in the past few days and efforts are being made to repeal it, but as yet without success. Those opposed to the law are mostly farmers who work from daylight until dark busy seasons of the year so that it really does not affect them greatly.

They have made no definite basis for their arguments except that they thing that it should be changed as it was before the war. Those who wish to see the daylight act retained claim that without the extra hour of light, they would not have been able to raise the war garden they did last year and do many jobs that otherwise would have gone undone. The war is not over yet and this summer the good gardens will be of as great help as they were last year and the gardeners are asking that this law be left just as it is.

The office and factory man is the greater benefited by this plan which gives him a chance to do work at home that in other times he would not do. It enables him to complete his work in time to spend a few hours of daylight at home. Most homes have a garden in connection with them and in order that they may be tended as they should be the daylight system should not be changed. It was remarkable how little difficulty was caused in the change last year; it was strange for a while but most people enjoyed getting out earlier in the morning and completing their work earlier in the day. The farmers say that during the harvest season they were not benefited as they should have been on account of the wet mornings as the hay could not be put up as early in the morning and that when six o'clock came their men would quit thus cutting the day short by an hour.

This was not the case in most instances for the farmers, especially during harvest, have it understood that time does not have any effect upon their working hours, for as long as hay will do to go in the mow, they work at it, even if it is until dark; and also during wheat harvest the binder runs as long as the driver can see how to drive. During threshing the farmer claimed that he was cheated out of an hour's work from his men because they would quit work at six o'clock. This was not the case always however, for the threshing machines ran as late last year as the light would permit the machine to be fed. As a whole the plan was a great success and should be given another trial. Give the man in the office and factory a chance to do something for himself.

The only things you can never get too much of are facts.

Honesty in politics would surely pay if somebody would only try it.

No card system so far introduced will put brains into a man's head.

In the world are two sorts of men—those who make the money and those who get it.

Man sprang from monkeys all right. What a pity it is that he didn't spring further!

Collins. The jury was out less than ten minutes.

THE MEN IN CLASS A1

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition, not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and care-less living brings old age prematurely. The bodily functions are impaired and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is generally the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules periodically and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be enhanced, your muscles supple, your mind active, and your body capable of hard work.

Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil—the kind your great-grandfather used. Two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. Remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL Brand. In three sizes, sealed packages.

The B. Y. C. D. of the First Baptist church will give a box supper Wednesday evening in the basement of the church. Ice cream and cake will be for sale. Every one is invited to attend. 29612

been officially designated for this year. If there are any changes to be made assessors will be advised of same. Such changes, if any, will be very slight.
"List all dogs with descriptions of same, but withhold receipts until it is finally determined what the tax shall be. There will be a change from the present law.

"Assessors are instructed to be exceedingly careful in filling out the personal property schedules for manufactories, public utilities, merchandise stores, etc.

"After assessing corporations on their tangible property assessors shall leave with same blanks for corporate reports, which shall be made in duplicate and filed later with county auditors, who shall lay same before boards of review to be assessed for corporate excess.

"Administer the oath to the personal property schedule to each taxpayer. There is a severe penalty for an assessor who fails to administer such oath.

"County assessors should instruct township assessors and their deputies as to the local market value on the 1st day of March of all articles that have such value. There shall be no agreement among assessors on any prices less than the market values where such prices are known.

"Assessors shall make special inquiry for diamonds and other valuable jewelry and list same at their true cash value, subject to no discount except such, if any, as may be allowed by statute.

"Wherever possible assessors

shall view the property to be assessed. Better judgment may be formed as to values in this way.

"Township assessors shall make reports to county assessors on items set out in form prepared for that purpose on the following dates: March 15, March 29 and April 12. County assessors shall compile these returns and send reports to state board on March 17, March 31 and April 14. Blanks shall be obtained through the office of county auditor.

"Assess materials and supplies belonging to railroads as heretofore, unless notified to the contrary. Some misapprehension regarding this matter has been created through the newspapers.

"County assessors shall state on each of their reports whether the property in their respective counties is being assessed as the law requires."

Amusements

Peggy Hyland at Mystic

Peggy Hyland will be shown at the Mystic theatre tonight in "The Girl With no Regrets," and as an extra attraction, "Mutt and Jeff at the Front" will be on the program tomorrow. Carrol McComas and Richard Tucker in "When Love is King," will be shown and a comedy, "The Shakesville Sleuth," is also on the program. Friday a special picture featuring Harry Carey in "A Woman's Fool," and Saturday William Anderson in "Red Blood and Yellow," will be shown.

Fred Stone at Princess.

Fred Stone is presented tonight at the Princess theatre in "The Goat". This is one of the best pictures that Mr. Stone has ever appeared in. Thursday and Friday a special picture, "Sporting Life" is on the program.

A group of shapely bathing girls in a boxed set and a woman's kind if careless remark, are what caused Chuck McCarthy to be bitten by the "moving bug". Chuck is the young iron worker hero of "The Goat", the new Arteraff Picture in which Fred Stone is starred.

At the story's start he is shown working at the Filmercraft Studio as an iron worker, whither he has been sent for the day on some construction work. Then the bathing girls come into his life and he makes a thrilling rescue of the leading lady's pet monkey. She wants to thank him and carelessly tells him that he should be in the movies. No more encouragement is needed. The next day Chuck presents himself to the casting director of the Filmercraft Studio. The rest of the story is given up to telling of Chuck's adventures in the pictures. The story is said to be a laugh from start to finish. It was written by Frances Marion, and is said to represent that scenario writer at her best.

Donald Crisp directed the picture and a strong cast supports the star. Rhea Mitchell, Sylvia Ashton, Winifred Geernwood, Raymond Hatto, Charles Ogle, Noah Beery and other well known players have important roles. Henry Kotani was the camera man.

NERVOUSNESS ON THE DECLINE

Doctors Encouraged, They Hold Out Hope for All

"Nothing wrong but my nerves." We hear it at home, at work and everywhere. Certainly, nervousness is a disease. A man or woman might better have a broken leg than a shattered, run down nervous system.

Overwork and worry drains the nerve cells and centers of all their strength and vitality. Then you get your sleepless nights, poor blood, nervousness, worry and fear. The better doctors of today know just what to do in cases of this kind. A few weeks' use of Phosphated Iron rarely fails to strengthen and feed the Phosphate-hungry nerve centers.

Phosphated Iron certainly does take hold. The way the majority of patients come back is remarkable.

What a change in appearance, too. The cheeks become filled out and flushed with the healthy ruddy glow that only pure, red ironized blood can give. Eyes sparkle, their step has the spring and swing of youth and their whole system seems to be alive with energy and good spirits.

Mr. Nervous Man or Woman, Phosphated Iron will do all this for you if you will give it a chance. Do not drag around, all in and half dead another day when help is so near. Get busy! and be a live one once again!

To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to give you pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

The World's Tractor

This one man single unit two wheeled Tractor weighs 1700 pounds and in ten hours will plow four acres. Disc twenty acres with a seven-foot tandem disc. Harrows forty-five to fifty acres with a 15-foot harrow. Plant twenty to twenty-five acres of corn, cultivate 20 acres with a two-row cultivator. Harvest ten acres with a corn binder. Cut twenty acres of wheat with an eight-foot binder. Mow fifteen acres with five-foot mower rake or pull a hay loader; and in addition can be used for belt work not requiring to exceed ten to twelve horse power.

This Tractor has been in use for four years and is not an experiment. It is superior in every detail of construction.

When the Indiana Silo Company went into the Tractor business four years ago, they found the trouble with Tractors was that they were always laid up for repairs. They have solved that part; they have so constructed it so as to reduce repair bill to a minimum and is so simple any boy can operate.

Tractor will be in Rushville, Saturday, February 15th, and will be more than pleased to demonstrate it as soon as weather permits.

A FEW REASONS WHY WHITTALL RUGS and CARPETS ARE SOLD BY US

No Rugs or Carpets made in America compare with Whittall's in quality, design and coloring. These facts are recognized where Whittall goods are known, and you have only to see these beautiful floor coverings to grow as enthusiastic in their praise as we have been since we began to feature them five years ago. All Whittall designs are faithful productions of the choicest Orientals. The yarns used are all imported from the Orient, and the best vegetable dyes only make their fast colors, which are as durable as possible to produce. They are made in the widest range of sizes, in six different grades.

IT IS TRUE

That not much building is being done these days, but folks are improving their old homes instead of building new ones.

Interior decoration is getting considerable consideration. Many people are keeping that promise they made to themselves—"To paper those rooms as soon as the war is over." Now is the best time for you to keep that promise, too, while our stock is new and fresh.

Many of our customers have been so pleased with our 1919 decorations they have made selections for every room in the house and are having it applied now to avoid the usual spring "Rush." Why not profit by their wisdom and make your selections soon? We are glad to suggest appropriate combinations.

TO SEND PHOTOS OF GRAVES

Red Cross Will Forward Pictures to Relatives of Dead Soldiers.

Although all the bodies of soldiers who were killed in the recent war will not be brought back, the Red Cross has made arrangements to photograph all the identified graves and send pictures of them to the nearest relative. Mrs. Flora Jackson of this city has received the picture of the grave of her son, Private Carl Jackson, who was the first Rush county boy to be killed in action during the recent war. Each photograph will be mounted on a cardboard folding frame, on one side of which will be inscribed the soldiers record.

Many Palestine children have been blinded by picking up unexploded bombs. The Red Cross is working on plans to teach these unfortunates remunerative trades.

HOW WEAK, NERVOUS WOMEN QUICKLY GAIN VIGOROUS HEALTH AND STRONG NERVES 7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

A Vigorous, Healthy Body,
Sparkling Eyes and Health-Colored
Cheeks Come in Two Weeks, Says
Discoverer of Bio-feren.

World's Greatest Health Builder Costs Nothing Unless It Gives to Women the Buoyant Health They Long For.

It is safe to say that right here in this big city are tens of thousands of weak, nervous, run-down, depressed women who
in two weeks' time could make themselves so healthy, so attractive and so keen-minded that they would compel the admiration of all their friends.

The vital health building elements that these dependent women lack are all plentifully supplied in Bio-feren.

If you are ambitious, crave success in life, want to have a healthy, vigorous body, clear skin and eyes that show no dullness, make up your mind to get a package of Bio-feren right away.

It costs but little and you can get at original package at any druggist anywhere.

Take two tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—seven a day for seven days—then one after meals till all are gone. Then if you don't feel twice as good, look twice as attractive and feel twice as strong as before you started your money is waiting for you. It belongs to you, for the discoverer of Bio-feren doesn't want one penny of it unless it fulfills all claims.

Note to Physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren, it is printed on every package. Here it is: Lactin; Calcium Glycero-phosphate; Iron Peptonate; Manganese Pe-ptonate; Ext. Nux Vomica; Powd. Ben-zoin; Phenolphthalein; Oleoresin Capsicum; Kola.

POLISH TEXT BOOKS USED IN INDIANA

Parochial Schools in Northwestern
Part of State Bear Stamp
"Made in Germany"

REPORT BY CARL FRITSCHKE

Ninety Percent of Boys Reach Maturity Without Learning a Trade, Investigation Discloses

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 25.—"Polish text books used in parochial schools in northwestern Indiana bear the stamp 'made in Germany,' and among these are those from which the pupils of the parochial schools are taught the history of the United States," said Carl Fritsche, in reviewing his experiences in inquiries conducted throughout the state, and especially in Lake county. Fritsche is a field agent for the United States department of labor.

A report dealing with the conditions among children of school age in northwestern Indiana was made public today by Mr. Fritsche and includes a variety of revelations regarding the conditions existing among the foreign population of that section of Indiana. The report as prepared in connection with the Strode-VanAnken bill providing for establishing an Indiana Free Employment Service, and sets forth a portion of the work which will be undertaken by the junior section of the employment service in event the bill is enacted into law. It also sets forth some of the conditions which have been endured in Indiana regarding the teaching of German and other foreign languages in schools in the Hoosier state up to the time the United States entered the war against the Central powers.

"Until this year Polish text books have been used almost exclusively but now there seems to be a change and they are turning toward the use of the English text books," said
Mr. Fritsche.

"Many parents have property and are comfortably fixed, but their boys must work upon reaching fourteen in order to satisfy the demand of the parents for money. No consideration is given to the future welfare of the children, by the parents' insofar as influencing them to stick to one trade is concerned.

"As a rule the boy shifts from one job to another, always making a change where he can make a few dollars. The result is that ninety percent of these boys of foreign birth reach maturity without having learned any trade, and the sole ideal that the best job is the one that pays the most money. The other ten percent, having found a type of work they like, have upon maturity learned a trade and become substantial citizens. In other words, in East Chicago the melting pot is melting ten percent and the other ninety percent is growing up without ever coming in contact with the type of ideals for which American citizenship stands.

"The major portion of these children only reach the fifth or sixth grade by the time they are fourteen years of age, and then quit school for good.

"With the exception of the Irish Catholic schools, the Polish is the only nationality which maintains large schools for its children. The former is the greatest aid to the Americanization forces in East Chicago, all subjects being taught in the English language.

"These schools are under the auspices and financed by the Polish Catholic church, and, with few exceptions, the Polish language is used exclusively in the class rooms.

"I was told by one official at East Chicago that upon going into school rooms where the children were seven and eight years of age that when he made an examination in English, the instructor would repeat what he said in Polish before the children, born in America, could understand what he said to them. Fourteen teachers are the sole instructors of between eight and nine hundred pupils in one northwestern Indiana school.

"The German Lutherans have their own schools. They use the German language. They sing in German and pray in German. They learn their own text books. Authorities in northwestern Indiana are urging that teachers be compelled to pass the state board of education examination before they are permitted to teach in any school, public, private or parochial, in this state. They also urge that the children be taught something about what American citizenship means.

They are not getting an American education."

Touching upon another phase of the results of the existing conditions under the system of education and environment in the foreign settlements of Lake county, it was also stated that "the Roumanian King of Indiana Harbor said he controlled eight hundred votes."

Girls as well as boys seek employment long before reaching their maturity, it was stated, and many of them marry at an extremely early age in order to escape attending parochial schools where they are taught in foreign languages.

Snuff chewers and crap shooters are developed at an early age in underground caves dug by youthful gangsters, who seldom go home before two or three o'clock in the morning, he said.

"At the annual Father and Son banquet 225 boys and their fathers mostly Boy Scouts attended. None of the Boy Scouts who attend Polish schools were permitted to attend this banquet, which was held with the idea of pumping a little American doctrine into the boys.
They were forbidden to go to the banquet by the Polish teachers. We must Americanize the children right now and must start right in the schools. So far as the Americanization of Poles in Northwestern Indiana is concerned, we depend upon the Polish priests to do it. He perpetuates the same old European ideals he brought over with him.

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome
the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength.
This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer
all kinds of aches and pains—headaches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an acid-stomach is the real cause of the trouble.

Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloated out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist.
See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach troubles.
Banish all your stomach troubles as completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing
after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health
—if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food—if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day and see how much better you will feel.

NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.

CHICAGO CLOSES BIG FIGHT TODAY

Finishes one of its Hottest Municipal Campaigns With the Primary Election.

OLD TIME BLUDGEONS IN USE

Many Familiar Words Were in the Campaign Oratory Such as Gas, Traction, Civil Service.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Chicago closed one of its hottest municipal campaigns with the primaries here today.

All the old time bludgeons were in use by the six mayoralty candidates with a few new ones invented by the war.

Gas, traction, civil service and other familiar words rang in the campaign's oratory. The war brought charges, counter charges and promises in regard to reconstruction, care of the soldier and a clean city to back up war time prohibitions.

Then, too, the war figured in attacks on Mayor William Hale Thompson, candidate for reelection. Thompson's attitude in failing to receive Marshall "Papa" Joffre and his invitations to peace leaguers to meet in Chicago were referred to constantly as an indication of his

war attitude. "Big Bill" came back vigorously.

Aside from socialist candidates the big battle was between six men—all fighting each other as well as the entire opposition ticket. Candidates for mayor were:

"Big Bill" William Hale Thompson, republican, now mayor, defeated at the primaries last fall as a candidate for U. S. senator.

Capt. Charles E. Merriam, republican, defeated in 1911 by Carter H. Harrison in the same sort of race. Merriam, university professor, alderman and lately red cross official in Europe, represented the "reform" element while in the council.

Harry E. Olson, republican, municipal judge, put forward by "harmony" republicans. He was defeated by Thompson in 1915.

County Clerk Robert M. Sweitzer, democrat, the "harmony" candidate for his party.

T. W. Carey, democrat, running on a platform calling for "good utilities management."

States Attorney MacClay Hoyne, independent, especially vigorous opponent of Thompson. Carter H. Harrison, five-time mayor, may enter the race by petition upon his return from Europe, where he is with the Red Cross.

ARE ESSENTIAL TO BRITISH INDUSTRY

Pig-Minder, Beer-Carrier, Pip-maker, Face Faker, Seek Army Discharges at Once

THEY CLAIM THEY ARE NEEDED

Declare That Their Services Are Essential to the Welfare of Industrial Procedures

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 4.—(By Mail.—Onion peelers and cat teachers are essential to British industry.

An onion peeler, high in the ranks of his profession, and one of the most eminent cat teachers in the entire British army are authorities for this. They have applied for discharge from the army, stating their occupations, setting forth their expertness and their importance to industry, and requesting that industry

Asserts Rheumatic Impurities Can't Stay in Body

When My Prescription Goes in, Rheumatism Goes Out Along With All Poisonous Uric Acid, Says Discoverer. James H. Allen

Because he was crippled with terrible rheumatism and unable to work, and because doctors failed to help him, Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester decided to help himself.

Persistent study, ceaseless patience and frequent experiments convinced him that before anyone could be free from rheumatism the poisons and impurities often called uric acid deposits, must be dissolved in the joints, ligaments and muscles and expelled from the system.

It took some years to get this idea into the form of a prescription, but perseverance finally conquered and in a very short period every pain and twinge and trace of rheumatism was forced to flee and Mr. Allen turned himself from a rheumatic wreck into a strong, healthy, robust man.

So pleased was he with his success that he named this wonderful medicine Allenru. Many others cursed with the agony of rheumatism tried it with results that were almost magical.

Requests for Allenru became so numerous that a decision was reached to let sufferers know of the discovery through the newspapers and now druggists throughout the country dispense the Allenru prescription or can get it for you on short notice. (Adv.)

be not unduly handicapped by their longer retention in the armed service of His Britannic Majesty.

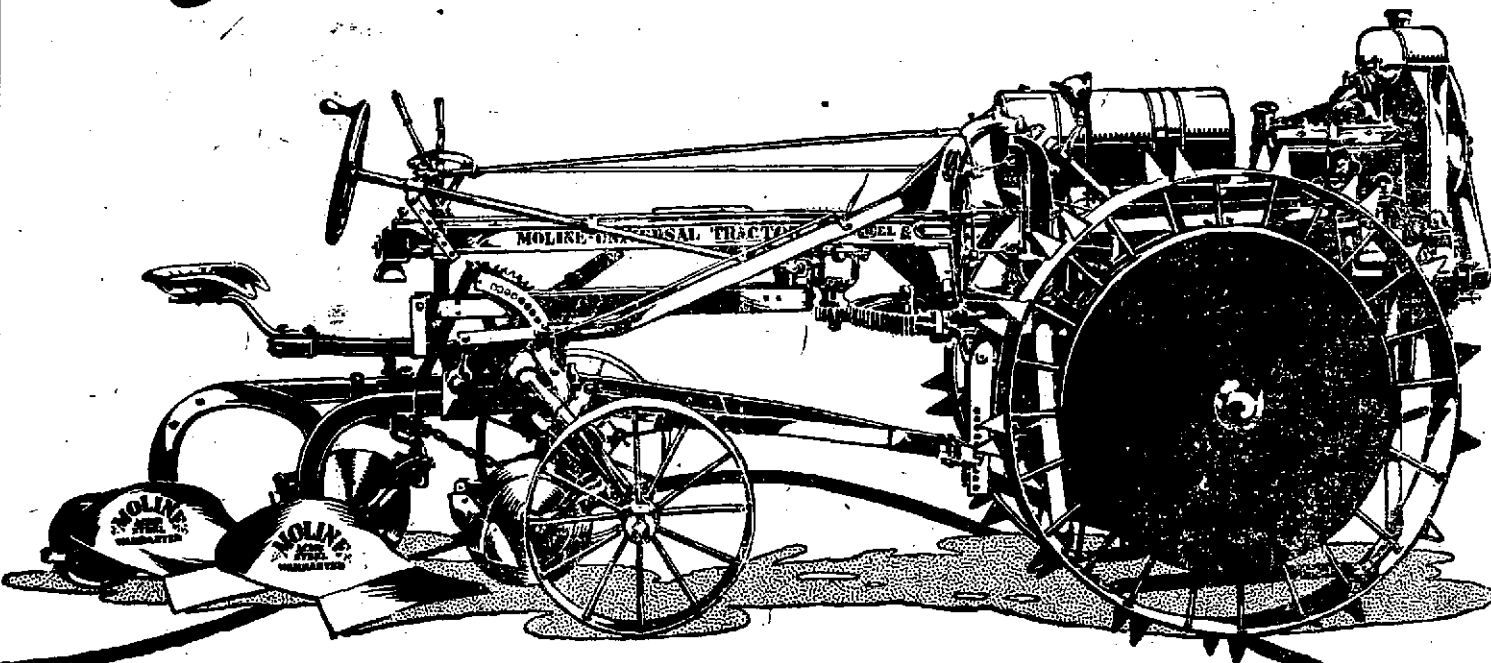

Another empire builder whose importance to industry apparently has been overlooked describes his profession as that of "expert pig-minder." He asks immediate release, lest British industry find his longer absence in the army insupportable. He speaks for himself only, but the natural implication is that the entire body of pig-minders in the armed service will have to be discharged forthwith, that in all things the pigs may be minded.

An expert beer-carrier also clamors for return to industry and civilian life. He sets forth that efficiency of the British smelters is being greatly reduced, owing to the fact that the laborers are forced to do their own beer carrying while the nation's expert beer-carriers are wasting their time carrying piles. Employers and the ministry of munitions have recognized the trade of beer carrying even during the war. A beer-carrier gets $15 a week at the smelters, the employees furnishing the salary. An expert is one who can carry most of the beer outside of his own person, spilling but a negligible quantity down his throat.

Several face-fakers have applied for early demobilization, alleging occupation is essential to the well-being of large classes of society. A face-faker, in London parlance, is one who paints out black eyes and otherwise changes the appearance of a countenance. The services of these gentlemen are said to be much in demand by robbers, murderers, wife deserters, all-round-crooks, and other general purpose undesirables.

An extraordinary number of pip-makers also crave opportunity to do their share in the great reconstruction. Pip-making is a subsidiary of the jam manufacturing business. The expert pip-makers, most of whom are women, turn out great quantities of wooden seeds to put into raspberry jam. Englishmen call these seeds pips. They also call the stuff the wooden pips are mixed up with raspberry jam. It is made of sticky material, well flavored, that passes admirably for raspberry pulp when it has plenty of well made wooden seeds mixed with it. Naturally, jam consumers have been pretty much up against it during the war, the supply of wooden seeds being much restricted by reason of the presence of so many pip-makers in the army, where only machinegun jams required their attention.

Buy Your Moline Tractor Now

Because:

You may not be able to get a Moline Universal if you delay ordering.

You will help relieve spring congestion of shipping by buying now.

You will have plenty of time to become familiar with its construction and operation before the spring rush and will be able to work your tractor in on belt work and other light jobs.

It is the only tractor which does all farm work including cultivating.

One man operates both tractor and implement from the seat of the implement where you must sit in order to do the best work.

Tractor and implement form one unit—backs as easily as it goes forward—turns in a 16-ft. circle.

It has plenty of power for your heaviest work, yet light in weight to operate economically on light jobs. All the weight on two big drive wheels—no dead weight—no extra expense.

Substantially constructed for many years of service.

Electric lights for night work and self starter for non-robust labor.

You can practically double your efficiency—you can produce more food with less help. You will need it, order now.
